+ Products subject to Section 871(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code may be subject to withholding tax on dividend equivalent payments (generally at a rate of 30%). The Company will deduct the applicable tax amount from the client's account based on the actual amount determined by the upstream broker or clearing broker. Such deduction represents a pass-through withholding tax and is not a transaction fee charged by the Company. The actual scope of application, withholding tax rate and deduction arrangements shall be subject to the final determination of the upstream broker or clearing broker, applicable laws and the Company's records.
